III International Colloquium Colonialism, Anticolonialism and National Identities

“1415-2015. From the Empires to the CPLP - Discourses and Practices”

28th, 29th and 30th October 2015

CEIS20

Versão portuguesa

The previous two conferences (2008 and 2014), subordinated to the larger theme of “colonialism, anti-colonialism and National Identities”, aimed to discuss the multiple aspects of the complex nationalist issue on the African scene and the role of military conflicts during the twentieth century. The 2015 conference will discuss the three Portuguese empires and the Community of Portuguese Speaking Countries (CPLP). The departure is the 600 years of the conquest of Ceuta, as well as the 40th anniversary of independence of the former Portuguese colonies. The conference aims to discuss past, present and future, from an interdisciplinary point of view and with a wide chronology.
