

Table of contents

Preface

Catia Antunes and Jos Gommans

Introduction

Catia Antunes

PART I: AGENTS

1. South Asian Cosmopolitanism and the Dutch Microcosms in Seventeenth-Century Cochin (Kerala)

Jos Gommans

2. Negotiating Foreignness in the Ottoman Empire: The Legal Complications of Cosmopolitanism in the Eighteenth Century

Maurits van den Boogert

3. Pioneering in Southeast Asia in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century

Anita van Dissel

4. Nodal Ndola

Robert Ross and Anne-Lot Hoek

PART II: NETWORKS

5. The Networks of Dutch Brazil: Rise, Entanglement and Gall of a Colonial Dream

Catia Antunes, Erik Odegard and Joris van den Tol

6. Networks of Information: The Dutch East Indies

Charles Jeurgens

7. Paramaribo: Myriad Connections, Multiple Identifications

Peter Meel

8. The Global Dutchman in Indonesian Waters

J. Thomas Lindblad

PART III: INSTITUTIONS

9. 'Not out of Love, but for Money and Profit': The Dutch-Japanese Trade from the Seventeenth to the Nineteenth Centuries

Wim Boot

10. Institutional Interaction on the Gold Coast: African and Dutch
Institutional Cooperation in Elmina, 1600-1800

Henk den Heijer

11. Conflict Resolution, Social Control and Law-Making in Eighteenth-Century Dutch Sri Lanka

Alicia Schrikker

12. Curaçao: Insular Nationalism vis-à-vis Dutch (Post-)Colonialism

Gert Oostindie

Conclusion: Globalizing Empire: The Dutch Case

Jos Gommans

Further Reading

Index