

Contents

List of Maps	page ix
List of Figures	x
Preface and Acknowledgements	xi
Note on Language, Names, and Anonymisation	xix
Currency Conversion Rates	xxv
Acronyms and Abbreviations	xxvii
Glossary	xxxii
1 At the Desert's Edge	1
Ecology and Politics	3
The Imperative of Mobility	8
From Slavery to Aid	17
For a Perspectival History	25
Conclusion	33
2 Between Sokoto and Agadez: Inter-Ethnic Hierarchy in the Nineteenth Century	34
Land and People	38
Ader at the Time of Sokoto's Expansion	42
Sokoto's Tenuous Hold on Ader	54
View from Within: Environmental and Political Insecurity	58
The Organisation of Dependence in Tuareg Hierarchies	62
Tributes, Violence, and Slavery	67
Asna Social and Supernatural Hierarchies	89
Asna-Tuareg Networks	97
Conclusion	103
3 Entangled Histories of Colonial Occupation, 1899-1917	104
Prelude to Occupation	108

	'It Was Necessary to Show We Were the Strongest'	115
	Attitudes of Indigenous Chiefs: Hausa and Lissawan Submission	121
	Kel Gress Defeats at Zanguebe and Galma	127
	Makhammad and Iwellemmeden Resistance	134
	Normalising Government: Borders, Chiefs, and the 'Bellah Question'	142
	'The Bellah Is Indispensable to the Tuareg'	146
	The Uprisings of 1916–1917	151
	Epilogue: The Massacre of Tanout	158
4	Governing Labour – Slave, Forced, and Migrant, 1918–1945	161
	Slow Death of the Indigénat	164
	Persistence of the Question Bellah	169
	The Crisis of Native Rule	175
	Prestations: Between Forced Labour and Fiscal Obligations	183
	The Migration Question	188
	From Slaves to Migrants	192
	Conclusion	200
5	The Development of 'Development', 1946–1983	202
	The Will to Develop: Colonial mise en valeur in the Keita Valley	206
	The Invention of a 'Voluntary Region'	215
	How the New Institutions Worked	220
	Recasting Labour as Participation	228
	The Development Society	238
	Desertification in National and International Policy	246
	The Initiative of Italian Cooperation in the Sahel	251
	Conclusion	255
6	Fighting Against the Desert, 1984–2000	256
	The Keita Project	259
	Managing 'the Keita Miracle'	262
	Sensitising the Peasant	267
	La Femme de Keita	272
	Women Workers in the Project's Worksites	277
	Gender, Development, and the Slow Death of Slavery	282
	Negotiating Gender and Status in the Keita Project	290
	The Project and Labour Migration	295
	Conclusion	300
7	Between Development and Dependence	303
	Change and Continuity at the Desert's Edge	304
	Aid, Subjectification, and Subjection	308
	The Experience of Dependence	313
	Bibliography	321
	Index	357